

JS105, Section_

Student Name

Date

Variable Information List

This list is to be completed and submitted to the instructor at the time Assignment #5 is submitted. Failure to submit this list will delay grading of your Assignment #5.

Note: If you have more than one independent variable, designate them as such (Independent Variable₁; Independent Variable₂ and so on).

Independent Variable: _____ (categorical)

Level 1: _____

Level 2: _____

(Add additional levels if needed)

Background Variables (If your background variable is categorical, be sure to list all the attributes below the variable)

Example:

Background Variable₁: Gender (categorical)

Level 1: Male

Level 2: Female

Background Variable₁: _____ (state whether categorical or continuous)

Background Variable₂: _____ (state whether categorical or continuous)

(Add additional background variables as needed)

Note: If you have more than one dependent variable, designate them as such (Dependent Variable₁; Dependent Variable₂ and so on).

Dependent Variable: _____ (state whether categorical or continuous)

(Add additional dependent variables as needed)

If your dependent variable is categorical, be sure to list all the attributes below the variable

Example:

Dependent Variable: Level of Recidivism (categorical)

Level 1: Low

Level 2: Medium

Level 3: High